I return herewith the Cent, date of 1820. Submitted by Mr Drummond of the Secret Service Division for an opinion as to whether it was genuine, and have the honor to state, that after examination there is no question but that the piece was struck from genuine dies.

Very Respectfully

ASSAY DEPARTMENT,

January 14th, 1886.

Sir. -

The cent of 1820 received from the Secret Service Division, Treasury Dept., through Andrew L. Drummond Esq., has been carefully examined.

It is without doubt a genuine strike, as very many of the cents of this date show the same markings, having been struck with imperfect dies. -

Very Respectfully
Jacob B. Eckfeldt
Assayer
